Rod and Sarah are global missionaries for the Church of the Nazarene, serving at Africa Nazarene University in Nairobi, Kenya. They were appointed in August 2000.

Both Rod and Sarah are alumni of Olivet Nazarene University where in 1984, he received a B.A. in religion (M.A. in religion in 1986), and Sarah received a B.A. in Music Education. Rod then attended Nazarene Theological Seminary and graduated in 1988 with a M.Div. in religion. He received a M.Phil. in theological ethics in 1991 and a Ph.D. in theological ethics in 1995, both from Drew University.

Since arriving in Kenya in January 1991, Rod has been teaching in the Department of Religion at Africa Nazarene University. In June 2010, he was named deputy vice chancellor of Academic Affairs. Prior to that, he served as chair of Post Graduate Studies in Religion.

Sarah's main responsibility has been their family – Rebecca, Katie (Catherine), and Hannah. She also serves as Children's Ministries coordinator for the Africa East Field, as well as hospitality for the Field.

In Rod and Sarah's words, "We came to Africa believing that this was where God could use us most effectively in His Kingdom, and we have not been disappointed."

Rebecca is now a freshman (2010) at Olivet Nazarene University (address below). Katie (17) and Hannah (11) will miss their big sister! Katie enjoys soccer and drama. Hannah enjoys playing the piano and clarinet; her favorite class is science.

Rod enjoys basketball and computer games. Sarah enjoys exercising, reading, and piano.

Pray for the Reed family as they adjust to separation from Rebecca, and for her as she adjusts to life in the U.S. after living in Kenya for nine years. Pray for Rod and his students, some of whom come to ANU from across the continent of Africa requiring them to leave their wives and children in order to receive their education. Pray for an increased number of students coming to study theology/Bible at ANU. Pray for Sarah as she trains children's ministry workers and hosts guests.
